Supporting The RNBT Family

Making a Will is neither difficult nor time consuming, and is very important if you want to ensure that your wishes regarding your estate are carried out as you want them to be when you are no longer around. As well as protecting the interests of your loved ones, a Will can help further the causes about which you feel most deeply.

The RNBT is a member of The National Free Wills Network which provides us with the opportunity to offer to pay for a limited number of 'simple' Wills to be written at a discount rate through participating solicitors across the UK. There is no obligation to remember the RNBT in your Will, but we hope you may consider doing so.

Legacies are an important source of income for us; every penny counts when it comes to helping members of The RNBT Family in need. After taking care of your family and loved ones, please give some consideration to remembering us in your Will; you can be assured that any money you are able to leave us will be put to very good use.

How it works

1. Complete the form opposite, then return to us by post. Alternatively, email freewills@rnbt.org.uk
2. You will receive a letter detailing up to six participating solicitors closest to you.
3. You make an appointment with one of those solicitors to draw up or amend your Will.
4. The RNBT pays for your Will to be written, at a special rate agreed with the solicitor.

Please send me details about the RNBT's free Will writing service

Please complete this form using a ballpoint pen, then detach, fold and stick along the gummed edges before posting. We promise that any information you give will be used for Royal Naval Benevolent Trust purposes only.

Established in 1922, the Royal Naval Benevolent Trust helps non-commissioned Sailors, Marines and their families (The RNBT Family), should they need help, throughout their lives. From the day they join the Royal Navy or Royal Marines, all RN ratings and RM other ranks are part of The RNBT Family, as are their wives, husbands and dependent children.
