CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

Welcome to our sixth Impact Report, and my first as Chair of Trustees. The report is designed to tell the fullest story of our year whilst also giving you a flavour of the real life stories of the people we have helped. Our people in need are at the heart of all that we do.

This has been an extremely busy, but productive, year for RNBT. We have marked our centenary with the opening of our new care home, Admiral Jellicoe House in Portsmouth, as well as mounting an effective awareness campaign which has delivered wider benevolence just at the time our people most needed it, yet we still found time to celebrate 100 years of benevolence and care in style. The expansion of our delivery of care has resulted in major growth in the Trust's turnover and personnel which has been achieved successfully with the minimum of fuss. But we are not resting on our laurels. Whilst this Report is focused on the achievements of the past year, we are already working hard to expand our care provision and continue to widen awareness of what RNBT can do for our people. Please help us to deliver our mission by spreading the word that RNBT is ready and able to come to the aid of those most in need.

Our Vision remains:

'Sailors, Marines and their families living happy, dignified lives'

and our Mission:

'Sailors and Marines helping Sailors and Marines - now and always'

These simple statements make clear what we are all about.

It has been another busy and highly successful year, and I am very proud to present our Impact Report for 2022/23.

Russell Best OBE
Chair of Trustees

SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN DELIVERY – MORE HELP AND FASTER RESPONSE

This has been a most successful year of carefully planned significant increase in the delivery of both care and individual benevolence which has been mirrored by a major project to widen the awareness of what RNBT can offer as a major benevolence and care delivery charity.

MORE SUPPORT DURING THE COST OF LIVING CRISIS

The Trust was able to devote significant additional financial resources to meeting the increased demand for support for families and individuals struggling to cope with the impact of the cost of living crisis on their lives. Numbers applying for support increased by nearly 15%, and the average grant of £878 was 8% up. Nearly £100,000 was spent on assistance with rent, and a concerning £50,000 was spent on providing food for those most in need.

EASIER WAYS TO REACH US FOR HELP AND STREAMLINED PROCESSES

We have recently introduced a fast on-line portal system so that people can get in touch easily and quickly, particularly in times of crisis. Called 'Lightning Reach' this system, which is also used by The Royal British Legion and the RAF Benevolent Fund, allows people to apply for speedy support, providing sufficient critical information to allow our team to turn around applications very quickly. For those who need the reassurance of direct contact we have introduced a help line – 02394 216294 – and a direct email help@rnbt.org.uk handled by our new Case Co-ordinator. Our approval process has also been streamlined, resulting in a speedy response to people in need. Where appropriate we can also provide vouchers rather than direct finance to satisfy the most immediate needs for those struggling with the modern ills of gambling addiction and overwhelming debt.

THE RNBT HAS BEEN HELPING ME NOW FOR AROUND A YEAR AND YOU HAVE ALSO JUST HELPED ME WITH OBTAINING RENT FOR MY FLAT. I AM SO GRATEFUL FOR THIS AND WOULD LIKE TO SAY THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THE HELP. IT HAS MADE A POSITIVE IMPACT ON MY LIFE, YOU HAVE BEEN FANTASTIC.

CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

Last year we held a Reception in the House of Commons to launch the centenary, and a moving Thanksgiving Service in Portsmouth Cathedral. The finale of the centenary was a Royal Marines Band Concert in the New Theatre Royal, Portsmouth, on 14th May 2023. This rousing occasion was a fitting end to a year marking the centenary of the formation of RNBT by the granting of our Royal Charter by King George V. We looked back on the support offered to so many of our people during peace and war and we thanked those who have committed so much of their time. We also used the opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to the support of our people for the future.

INCREASED AWARENESS, SO THAT WE CAN HELP MORE PEOPLE

It is critical that our people know who to turn to in times of crisis. To achieve this, we need RNBT to be better known, and we used the centenary of the formation of the Trust as the opportunity to spread the word more widely. Our centenary events proved useful platforms, but we realised that we needed to reach further to places where the Royal Navy and RNBT are less well known. We planned and executed an ambitious awareness programme which featured a targeted Facebook advertising campaign with a short video and more consistent professional social media posts, as well as:

- 16 local radio interviews on a broadcast day from a Central London studio on 11th August 2022, with 29 regional on-line titles covering the same story.
- Articles in daily newspapers: a major feature article in The Daily Telegraph 6th September 2022 with interviews with Chair Nick Fletcher and Vice-Patron Nick Jellicoe, but also short articles in The i, The Daily Mail online and The Daily Express online.
- TV interviews on BBC South Today news programme on 1st September 2022 and with Vice Patron Jenny Agutter on Channel 5 News on 19th August 2022.

We are pleased with the results. The campaign led to 1,500-2,000 new visitors to our website each month; web visits were nearly 100% higher than last year (53,438 visits compared to 27,043 visits in 2021/22) and a 29% increase in social media audience (5,565 compared to 4,298 in 2021/22).

However we know we have more to do to reach more of our people, and will be looking to re-energise this campaign shortly. Please do look out for our posts and distribute them widely.

SUCCESSFUL DELIVERY OF OUR CENTENARY CARE HOME PROJECT, ADMIRAL JELlicoe HOUSE IN PORTSMOUTH

We are pleased and proud to have delivered our new care home, named after our Founder, on time and to the very highest standard. We opened to residents on 14th June 2022, and have been steadily building up the staff and the residents so that we should achieve steady state occupancy later this year. We were honoured to have the Home officially opened on 20th October 2022 by Nick Jellicoe, naval author and grandson of our founder, who was thrilled to have the privilege of opening the Home, commenting that our founder ‘would be smiling from above’.

WHAT IS RNBT ALL ABOUT?

We can best explain what RNBT is all about by answering the simple questions: ‘who, what, how and why?’.

Who: the naval community, some of whom may not know where to turn to

Life is unpredictable, but RNBT is by sailors’ and Marines’ sides and their families, from the moment they join up. We exist to provide a helping hand to serving and ex-serving men and women and their families.

What: help, opportunity and care in times of need

We take a holistic approach to help. Although we are capable of a swift solution, we always look to encourage our people to support themselves and to lead better lives, through financial help, enhancing skills for employment or support and assisted care, which includes our care homes, Pembroke House and Admiral Jellicoe House.

How: propelled by empathy and collaboration

We are uniquely equipped with the invaluable insights of former sailors and Marines so that we combine rapid response with compassionate understanding to help genuine need. We also work alongside our fellow service charities to present best solutions.

Why: help chart a course to a better life

We don’t just help our people weather the storm, we try and help them navigate their way out of it so that they can live happy, dignified lives, either alongside RNBT or under their own steam.

WE NEED YOUR HELP TO TELL OUR STORY!

Here are some key messages that can help you tell our story.

Key messages

We need people to know not just how we help, but what sort of organisation we are and how we react to our people asking for help. These thoughts will help you explain to others what we are all about:

We always respond with a helping hand. We won't judge why people ask for help, we will judge any application for help based solely on need.

People not problems. We take a human approach to finding a solution to problems. We won't just fix the initial problem, we want to make life better.

Inspired by our past, but looking to the future. We know that the needs of the wider naval community are shifting and that we need to evolve to meet the needs, so that every generation can live happy and dignified lives.

Better understanding means better solutions. We have many ex-RN and RM personnel working for RNBT whose experience helps generate better solutions.

Small in size, global in reach. Our size and structure allows us to respond quickly, often in 24 hours, to requests for assistance. We can also help our people abroad, last year in 15 different countries.

Serve a day, supported for life. We help based on genuine need, no matter how long the service.

THE AWARD OF THE CARE HOME TOP-UP FEE HAS SECURED MY MUM'S STAY AT HER CARE HOME AND IS MUCH APPRECIATED BY ALL HER FAMILY. IT HAS BEEN AN INCREDIBLY DIFFICULT TIME FOR ALL CONCERNED, ESPECIALLY MY MUM, THE RELIEF HAS BEEN ENORMOUS AND MY MUM IS NOW SETTling BACK INTO THE LIFE SHE KNEW AND ENJOYED, FEELING SAFE AND SECURE. ”

SON OF A NAVAL WIDOW

THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR THE AWARD OF THE REGULAR CHARITABLE PAYMENT. THE AWARD COULDN'T HAVE COME AT A MORE NEEDED TIME AND WILL HELP US SO MUCH. ”

FORMER ROYAL MARINE

I MUST CONVEY MY HEARTFELT GRATITUDE TO ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE RNBT FOR MY REGULAR CHARITABLE PAYMENT, I MUST ADMIT THAT I WOULD BE UNABLE TO COPE WITHOUT YOUR INCREDIBLE SUPPORT IN THESE DIFFICULT TIMES. ”

WHAT WE DELIVER

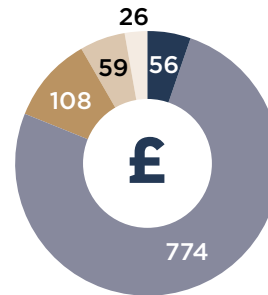

We deliver help to those in need as follows:

- Individual grants for life's essentials for those who need it most. Food, clothing, accommodation, fuel and utility bills, disability aids, help with employment-related training courses, household goods, funeral costs.
- Regular Charitable Payments for those on very low household incomes.
- Non-financial or Holistic Support and Advice to provide tailored support to help with the longer-term needs of our people to reach successful outcomes.
- Residential Care for mostly older members of the naval family, at Pembroke House, Admiral Jellicoe House and our Almshouse (John Cornwell VC National Memorial Almshouse).

We spent £1.7m on grants to individuals. Expenditure increased by 21% from £1.4m in 2021/22. The number of grant awards was up by 5% to 1,163 (2021/22: 1,107). The negative effect of the cost of living crisis no doubt had an effect on this statistic. Increases in mortgage rates and the continuing high cost of every day essential items is likely to cause this rise to continue for the foreseeable future.

We spent £1.4m on regular charitable payments, which increased by 25% from last year. We supported 746 beneficiaries on low incomes with a weekly payment of £35.

We spent £5.8m running our care homes and almshouse. The cost of running Pembroke House, Admiral Jellicoe House and the John Cornwell VC National Memorial Almshouse increased by over 50% from last year. This was an expected increase, mainly as a result of opening the new care home. About 70% of the Home's operating expenditure is made up of staff costs to provide safe and caring Homes for the residents.

We only spent £157k on raising funds, much lower than most other charities.

Holistic support – helping with longer-term needs

We contacted 454 of our people with complex needs, often after we had helped with direct financial support, with an engagement rate of 95%. These interventions were:

- Life-changing medical support outcomes, often involving Combat Stress as well as NHS services (304 cases last year);
- Life-defining to help with finance and debt issues, usually via the Seafarers' Advice and Information Line (SAIL); (282 cases last year);
- Life-enriching social exclusion outcomes (285 cases last year); and
- Life-informing through enhanced employment status or education (279 cases last year), 58% resulting in successful employment.

Holistic outcomes

Collaboration with other military charities

More complex cases still need caseworker support and reports, delivered securely via the Casework Management System (CMS), a common secure system which we share with all the main military benevolence charities. We are grateful for the support of caseworking organisations such as SSAFA and The Royal British Legion, whose caseworkers form a critical component of our shared system of support. This co-operation is a key factor in providing our people with truly joined up solutions to sometimes complex needs without the need for them to ask for help from different charities, and is an exemplar in the UK charity sector.

RNBT, as the largest naval benevolence charity, plays a lead role in representing naval charities by chairing the Naval Benevolence and Caseworking Working Group and attending the sector-wide Casework Steering Group and the CMS Management Board.

Care

RNBT continues to provide residential care for the mostly older members of the naval family, as well as helping with domiciliary care costs and care home 'top up' fees for those using other care facilities. We are proud to offer:

- Pembroke House, our lovely 55-bed care and nursing home in Gillingham, Kent;
- Admiral Jellicoe House, our new care home in Portsmouth with residential, nursing and dementia care facilities;
- John Cornwell VC National Memorial Almshouse, our six-unit almshouse in Hornchurch, Essex.

Income for care: £3.6m

Expenditure on care: £5.8m

CASE STUDIES

Statistics alone cannot paint a picture of reality, so we have included case studies to give a better flavour of the nature and complexity of the issues and the support offered.

CATHY BIRCH

FUNDING FOR A CERTIFICATE IN PROFESSIONAL MARKETING

Cathy served in the Royal Navy for ten years before being medically discharged. She has been self employed for many years. When she was offered a new position she knew that a Certificate in Professional Marketing would help her progress in this role and would improve her knowledge and expand her employment options. Cathy approached a Royal British Legion caseworker who applied to the RNBT for assistance with a Training Grant. Cathy is now working hard in the marketing world and has found a new lease of life working alongside colleagues and making a difference within her workplace.

JULIE SHAW

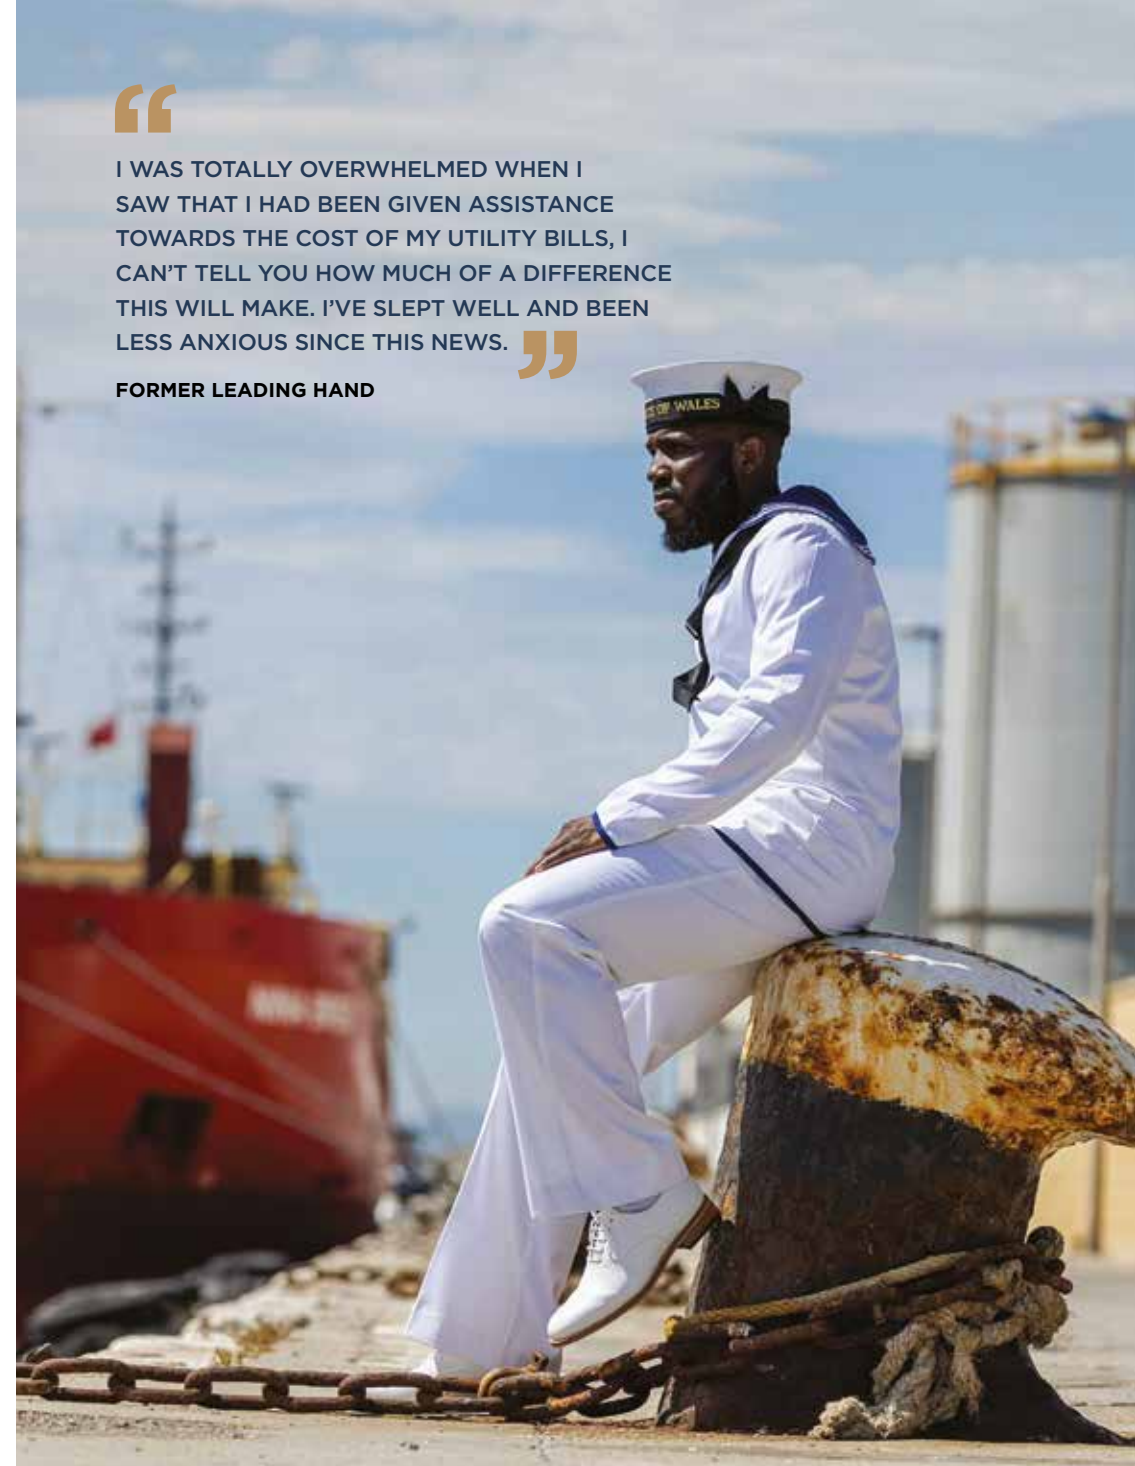

REGULAR CHARITABLE PAYMENT AND UTILITY BILL

After the divorce from her husband who had served in the Royal Navy, Julie received support to set up a new home for her and her son. To support her son as a single parent Julie enrolled on a Law degree course at university. This however would reduce her benefit entitlement. Julie was required to travel four days a week to the course which also impacted her financial position. Julie approached SSAFA for assistance with childcare, additional travel and help with her utility bills until her level of benefits was established. The RNBT on review of her circumstance has awarded Julie a Regular Charitable Payment and also helped with costs to cover her travel and bills.

I WAS TOTALLY OVERWHELMED WHEN I SAW THAT I HAD BEEN GIVEN ASSISTANCE TOWARDS THE COST OF MY UTILITY BILLS, I CAN'T TELL YOU HOW MUCH OF A DIFFERENCE THIS WILL MAKE. I'VE SLEPT WELL AND BEEN LESS ANXIOUS SINCE THIS NEWS.”

FORMER LEADING HAND

I JUST WANTED TO SAY MY REGULAR CHARITABLE PAYMENT HELPS ME HUGELY, IT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PAYING ELECTRIC AND OTHER BILLS AND NOT PAYING THEM. THE COSTS FOR EVERYTHING ARE JUST BECOMING UNSUSTAINABLE FOR MYSELF, THIS PAYMENT IS LITERALLY LIFE CHANGING, THANK YOU FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE. ”

FORMER LEADING MEDICAL ASSISTANT

JOHN TAYLOR

REGULAR CHARITABLE PAYMENT AND RENT ARREARS

John suffers from circulation problems in his legs. He is divorced and lives in a rented house with three other people. He is currently out of work and works on zero-hour contracts, he was let go before Christmas. As John was working, he was not entitled to Universal Credit so had no money for rent or food. His stepdaughter managed all his bills but when she became unwell he fell behind with his rent, owing £1,424 and was threatened with eviction. John had several other debts and credit card loans to the value of £6,172, which he could not pay. RNBT advised John to contact StepChange and explained what they could do for him. RNBT made awards for rent arrears and signposted John to SAIL and other debt charities who can assist with debts. RNBT also awarded a Regular Charitable Payment.

ADMIRAL JELlicOE HOUSE SUCCESSFUL FIRST YEAR OF OPERATIONS

It's been a very busy first year of operations after we cleared the Care Quality Commission regulatory inspection on 23rd May 2022. Since then we have steadily built up staff and resident numbers, and intend to reach steady-state occupancy later this year.

High standard of care. We have welcomed a number of visitors who have been impressed by the high standard of care, including a Healthwatch Portsmouth 'enter and view' visit. Here are some of the Healthwatch comments:

"AJH is an outstanding environment. (It) has a specific atmosphere and culture geared to be familiar to naval veterans."

"People were supported by kind and caring staff and were treated with dignity and respect."

"Residents clearly enjoyed activities that were taking place."

"...how well dressed and independent people were in making choices."

"We saw high quality and energy ... congratulate the team on their enthusiasm and commitment to launching this new and exciting project."

PEMBROKE HOUSE

CONTINUING TO OFFER 'GOOD' SERVICES FOR OUR PEOPLE

Our lovely care home in Gillingham, Kent, continues to deliver 'Good' services to our residents and their families, and has emerged from the rigours of the Pandemic stronger and more confident. Although not inspected since 2020, regular monthly reviews have endorsed its status as a 'Good' care home across all key lines of enquiry.

Continuous improvement. Not resting on our laurels, we have recently successfully completed a major kitchen refurbishment as well as some top floor window replacements. We plan to expand our provision to include dedicated dementia care later this year once we have completed some internal changes to the middle floor.

We continue to receive lovely reviews from residents and their families on carehome.co.uk:

"The staff were very friendly and approachable. The care home was very clean, tidy and smelt beautiful. Both relatives I visited looked well cared for and were happy. Staff spoke to both of them during the visit and were very kind and aware of their needs."

"Pembroke House is a wonderful, caring home. All staff treat my mum with the greatest of respect and deliver personalised care. High nursing standards keep my mum safe, which is the greatest comfort to her family. I would thoroughly recommend Pembroke House as a first-class care home."

"This is one of the kindest and most caring environments that we as a family could have hoped for. The team at Pembroke House are taking great care of my mum currently and for us as a family."

"The respect shown to my wife, myself and son were wonderful. I cannot thank the RNBT and your Angels in Pembroke House enough."

"Every question asked was answered, any problems both medical and administrative were sorted without delay."

THE JOHN CORNWELL VC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ALMSHOUSE

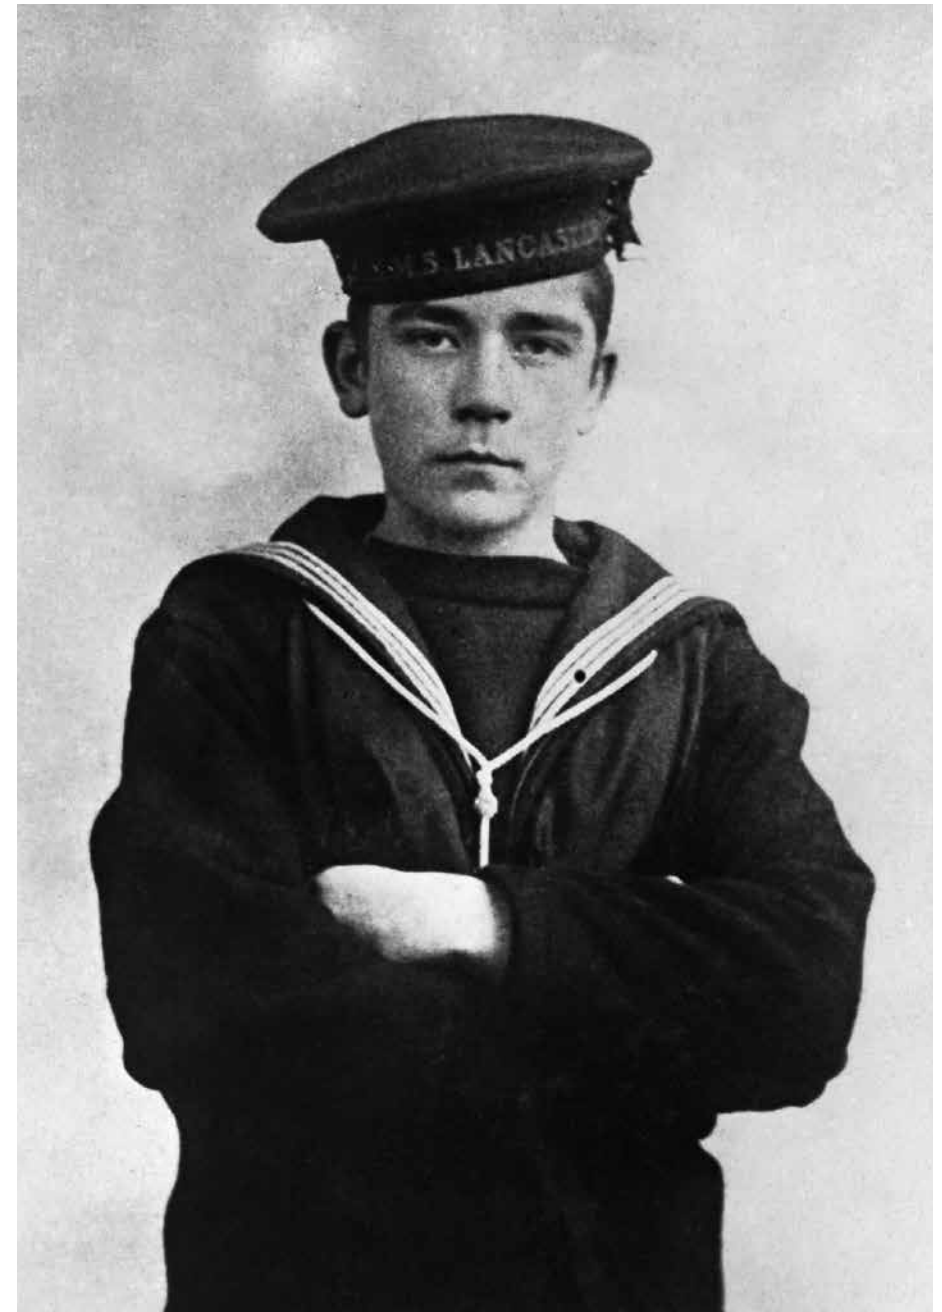

Our link to youthful heroism at Jutland, delivering tranquil living for our people

The six-unit almshouse complex was built in Hornchurch, Essex following a public subscription to erect a permanent memorial to the heroism of Boy Seaman John Cornwell VC who died of his wounds after the Battle of Jutland.

The two-bedroom semi-detached properties ('cottages') remain in a good state of repair. Outgoings are covered by the Weekly Maintenance Charge. In addition, there is a restricted fund that allows for any major repairs or upgrading and modernisation as required, such as the replacement of shower rooms with new wet rooms, which we achieved for five out of the six cottages last year.

Residents have kept well and occupancy remains at 100%.

FINANCE

The RNBT saw the final celebrations for its centenary year in 2022/23. It was a very successful year operationally and financially. Benevolence to beneficiaries continued to grow following reviews of grant rules and engaging with a new online grant portal, Lightning Reach.

Income

Total income for the year was just under £8m. Increased funds were secured from Greenwich Hospital to fund our higher value Regular Charitable Payments (RCPs) where uptake continued to grow through the year. The Trust continued to receive funding from The Royal Naval and Royal Marines Charity (RNRMC) who provided much needed funds to support mutual beneficiaries.

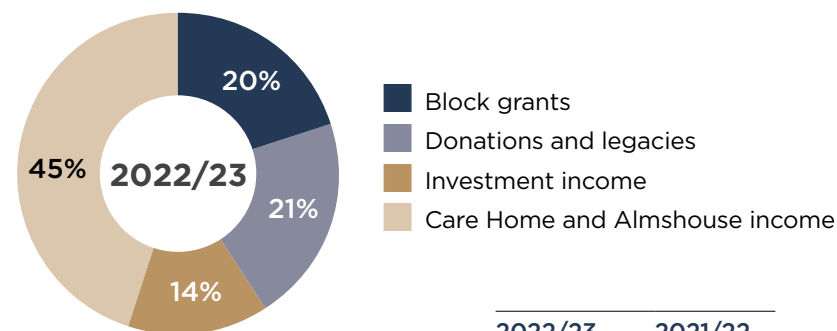

An additional generous sum of £250k was received from the The Michael Uren Foundation which was used to support the capital costs of the Admiral Jellicoe House build.

Gifts left to the Trust remain an important source of income. In the year £1.3m was received by the Trust, with £1m of this being requested ideally to create a long lasting legacy. As such this generous donation has been set aside as part of our Capital Development Programme.

In a volatile and uncertain market our investments performed relatively well. Much of this good fortune was because of holdings delivering Dollar dividends as opposed to Sterling. Investment income was marginally higher than last year at £1.1m.

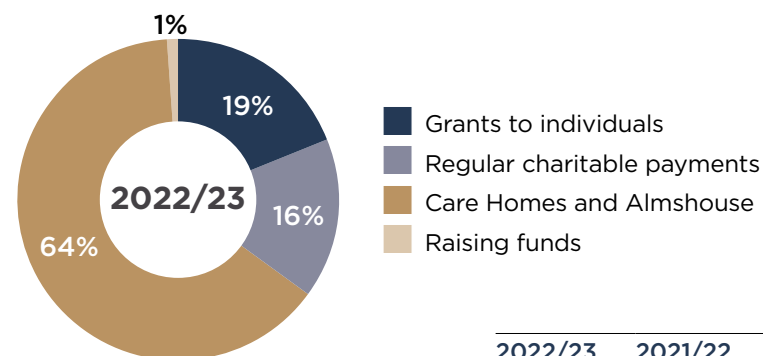

Income from both care homes reached a total of £3.6m. Income from Admiral Jellicoe House grew gradually as new residents moved into the Home in a measured and safe way.

Total expenditure on providing financial assistance to our beneficiaries was £3.2m, (£1.7m on grants to individuals and (£1.4m on Regular Charitable Payments). A total sum of £5.8m was spent on providing high quality, person centered care for our residents at both Pembroke House and Admiral Jellicoe House. The Almshouse allowed our occupants to live independently across the six Cottages in Hornchurch, Essex.
